English My Way is a community-based English language project, developed by Good Things Foundation in partnership with the BBC and the British Council, to support adults with no or low levels of English language skills. The project has currently been running for 3 years (Nov 2013 - March 2017).

- £6,753,124 total amount of funding received
- 128 Online Centres delivered
- 13,548 learners, over the three year programme
- 1,780 volunteers supported
The impact of English My Way

66% of learners improved their confidence in using/trying out their English when talking to other people

53% had improved English proficiency

58% progressed to an Entry Level 1 ESOL course

72% of learners were not working

71% of learners had been in the country for more than 2 years

63% of learners have dependent children

38% of learners had no formal education

23% of learners were educated to primary school level

FIND OUT MORE AT WWW.ENGLISHMYWAY.CO.UK