Make the most of the internet

Get free and friendly help to save money, stay healthy, connect with loved ones, or find a course to start your dream job- and do it all online!

Getting more out of the internet can be easy and fun, and we can help you get started.

If you'd like a helping hand doing a little bit more online, there's free and friendly support available in your local area.

Doing just one new thing online will help you see just how much the internet has to offer and just how easy it is to take that next step.

No matter how many confident you are - even if you've never been online before - our friendly team can help.
